Autumn Astrology

Back in August, I told people that life would start to calm down compared to the months prior— and many readers told me I was wrong. They were certainly correct during the London riots when angry Mars was activating the challenging Uranus-Pluto square. However, I suggest that it is time to redefine our base level measurement of a calm environment. The Uranus square Pluto challenge will be going on through 2015. Uranus wants to blow everything up and have change right away. Pluto wants major changes too; however, it seeks long-term change in Capricorn until 2023. Mother Earth, and everything else in Creation is shifting to a higher level of life. This brings up safety issues for many people, bursting illusions surrounding what makes you feel secure. Safety is not the illusion of a fat bank account or relocating from an earthquake zone to a tornado region.

Mahatma Gandhi said

“ We must become the change we want to see.”

If you want safety and security, you must first find it within. The action between freedom-seeking Uranus and burn-your-bridges-behind-you Pluto are activated at the Autumn Equinox. In the next three months, you must find the balance within between your need for freshness & freedom and stability & security. You must find that place within that is connected to the One Source of all that is. It is that place that recognizes that this is an abundant universe, and that you can tap into it whenever you need anything.

Chaz (Chasity) Bono EARTHLINES™ Pisces Sun, Virgo Moon, March 4 1969

The new season of Dancing With the Stars is stirring up controversy by selecting transgender Chaz Bono to be on the show. Born as the daughter of music stars Sonny & Cher, (s)he was born at the full moon, a phase that puts a person on display. He lives under the full moon ☾ and sun ☉ power lines which represent the pulling apart of opposites in order to be re-integrated into a new whole. The sun (father) opposite the moon (mother) also brought lessons through parental divorce. Caught between worlds Chiron ♄ also has a power line through his home in Southern California. This manifested as changing from female to male as transforming Pluto ♇ was moving into restructuring Capricorn in 2008. A Pluto line also passes through SoCal where her life was significantly impacted by Pluto-ruled deaths in her life.

The energies until winter solstice call you into a higher balance, suggesting that the base level of calm is moving to a higher level of understanding. This means that your previous concepts of calm, safety and security must adapt to the higher balance. Obviously, this creates anxiety in your life and in the world because we are creating a new global consciousness.

The only place of power is by creating the new reality within. Chasing more money, the next relationship, trying to resurrect the past, or anything else of the external world is a temporary band-aid to distract you from Truth.

Yes, you can still have the comforts of the world, but you must not define your Self by them. Autumn brings the early beginnings of an energy shift that will be very strong January-April 2012. Ambitious Mars enters goddess Virgo on Nov. 10 through early July 2012. It represents the next level of a process that has gone on for several years, where you remove the clutter from your life.

Mars in Virgo

Nov. 10th—July 2012

That's a reallllly long time!

Many people have already cleaned their closets; some have purified their bodies. The next step is to purify your limiting perceptions and rigid ideas about how the universe really works. (I plan to re-read The Life and Teachings of the Masters of the Far East by Baird Spalding to remind me that my self-created box has become too limiting.)

Starting Nov. 10, you receive a preview of the work that is being prepared for you between Jan. 23-April 13, 2012.

You are being called into a higher level of service, and the universe will let you know exactly what that is when the time is right-and not a moment before!

There are two eclipses and Mercury retrograde coming in the months ahead (see page 8, left column for solar eclipse and Mercury retrograde info). The Lunar Eclipse on Dec. 10 is in the sign Gemini. It's energy is beginning to build up even now, peaking in December. Allow it to stimulate you to new ideas, no matter how impractical. It is time to be curious, explore new techniques, meet new people, and generally be open. Practicality will come later.

7 RAY SOUL PURPOSE ESOTERIC ASTROLOGY

This is an astrology consultation based upon a branch of astrology known as Esoteric Astrology. Where regular (exoteric) astrology uses the planets to help you, esoteric astrology goes further to give you the universal frequencies called Rays that you were born under.

Knowing the "rays" you were born under helps you activate the speed button of spiritual growth and service.

Think of a chess board that has more than one level of playing field. Everyone operates on the base level to take care of core life needs. Those who have decided that their life is about spiritual growth and service resonate with this consultation.

Even if you think you know why you are on planet earth, this consultation offers insight and help in creating maximum benefit for yourself. This work comes from the books of Alice Bailey as explained by Djwahl Kuhl.

It includes information on your current cycles. Excellent for taking your astrology chart to a soul level.

EARTHLINES™ for Rick Perry

Pisces Sun, Virgo Moon 3/4/50, 10:40 am Haskell, TX

Power lines for Presidential candidate Governor Perry of Texas are abundant near Wash. DC.

When a person has a lot of power lines in a region, it is like a double-edged sword. They can either help a person due to having a lot of energy pushing them, or a person can get scattered with too many irons in the fire pulling in too many directions.

Compare the east coast to Texas where he has only Venus on the Midheaven (♀ MC) near his west Texas birthplace, and Pluto (power) Jupiter (expansive) in range of the state capitol. These are very powerful lines for a person who lives in Texas, but what will the shift be as he seeks office in Washington DC?

In WDC, Perry has wild card Uranus as a fiercely independent power line, suggesting he would revolutionize the way government is done, but Uranus is also the weirdo who doesn't fit in. So it would be a toss up to figure if he would re-invent government, or always be the outsider that would be erratic in making changes or getting support. He also has Vesta (higher service) and Chiron (wounded healer) on the east coast. If he was willing to compromise and make changes on a “half step” level, then there is promise for him there. He has a stubborn Taurus Ascendant in his chart that would have to be careful of my way or the highway type thinking.

Near Obama's campaign headquarters in Chicago, Perry has Jupiter and Pluto as public, career lines, making him a formidable opponent in the Great Lakes states. His West Coast power lines are not strong, making the Pacific coast states a tough sell for Perry.

On a global level, he has challenging power lines in Iran and China (not shown). If elected, these countries would test his foreign policy abilities.

Beginning in spring 2012, expect the unexpected Uranus will pass across his spiritual destiny node in the pioneering sign of Aries in his natal chart house of friends and organizations. He will make or lose friends that will surprise everyone.

The moon will be in randy Sagittarius which says "why do, when you can overdo!" A serious Capricorn moon on the 31st is better for quieter pursuits like honoring the traditional night when the veils are thinnest between worlds.

Soul Rays for Carlos Santana 7/20/47 Cancer Sun, Leo Moon

A soul ray is a universal frequency that each person incarnates on to provide opportunities for growth and service in this life. Where your zodiac sun sign is of our solar system and has a lot to do with personality, a soul ray is more about your spiritual mission.

Not many musicians have a highly successful career that spans 50 years, but Carlos Santana has had individual success, as well as played with some of the most famous people in the world including major influences like BB King, John Coltrane and Miles Davis. He is deeply spiritual with a meditation practice that dates back to the 1970's when he was a disciple of guru Sri Chimnoy. Spiritual titles to albums include Love, Devotion & Surrender, Illuminations and Supernatural.

His natal chart shows strong 3rd, 7th and 1st Ray energies. The 3rd ray brings the ability to communicate a higher truth in a way that all can understand. A recording such as Caravanserai certainly takes you to a meditative state. The 7th ray is energetic alchemy; it transmutes lower frequencies into the higher. Much of his music takes you beyond the lower chakra pounding associated with rock music. The 1st ray is the energy of stepping into your power. It destroys anything that gets between you and your connection to God (for example, ego). Santana went from a lowly dishwasher to one of the most famous musicians on planet earth, and there were many lessons in humility on the way. He was also sexually molested as a child and used his music to heal.

The Solar Eclipse on Dec. 10th lands on his South Node of past lives and karma in the area of relationships in his natal chart. Watch the news to see what endings and beginning occur for him in the months ahead. Ray definitions at www.astromark.us/soulraydefined.htm

It will be interesting to watch for any reaction from the middle part of the USA, especially Texas where Governor Rick Perry is running for President on a very conservative platform (see page 3). In the Central Time Zone, Chaz has a restrictive Saturn ♄ power line and a feminine Venus ♀ line. Although this brings good business energy, it can bring difficulties in personal relationships. From the transgender perspective, Venus is a feminine planet in masculine Aries. In his natal chart, spiritual destiny nodes ♁ and other planets are in the pulling apart signs of Aries and Libra. As he is being selected to DTWS, transiting Uranus (revolutions, shake up the status quo) is moving back and forth over his spiritual destiny. This is the same energy present at the Japan earthquake. In the USA east coast, Chaz has Ceres ♃ (healing, business) and Vesta ♃ (higher service), so it will be interesting to compare the reaction under more challenging lines in Texas vs. the eastern states. Another interesting combination in his natal chart is that masculine Mars is in Sagittarius making for a very male combination— and it is right next to confusing Neptune in private Scorpio in his 12th house.

The 12th house of anyone's chart is where we either initially don't see ourselves, or we try to hide something from ourselves and the world.

Try as you may, your 12th house lessons will come out for all to see in this life.

On the worldly level, this is lessons for Chaz in finding clarity on sexuality issues. On the higher level, Chaz is learning to bring a higher philosophy and service into this life by speaking higher truth— even if he does not receive approval from others.

CAN YOU FEEL VENUS SHIFT SIGNS?

Venus in Scorpio, Oct. 8th—Nov. 2nd
Moves into Sagittarius, Nov. 2nd—26th

You can practice learning astrology
by feeling the universe as it shifts rather than learning it intellectually.

Although Venus is generally soft and feminine, you can still tune into this fast moving planet to learn how she operates. Venus is associated with relationships, love, beauty, money, and your value system.

Pay attention to these areas of your life Oct. 8– Nov. 2 when she travels through intensely deep and emotional Scorpio. The scorpion is associated with sex, power, and is very private. Pay attention to your sexual drives or people who come into your life playing control games or carrying hidden agendas. Be willing to look at your own shadow side to see where your fears are running your value system instead of operating from a trust and love perspective.

On Nov. 2, Venus shifts into adventurous Sagittarius. Sag. is more playful, flirtatious, and open to a party than Scorpio. Sagittarius is optimistic, generous, and ready to laugh; Scorpio plunges the depths of your being to explore deep emotions. Sagittarius is ready to try something new, but may quickly jump to something or someone else if there are too many obstacles. Scorpio is careful to commit; but once they do, they are totally in (but have lessons in letting go).

Pay attention to see if your love & money needs and values shift during these time periods. Venus moves into serious Capricorn Nov. 26-Dec.20.

Libra is a time of relationships, so here is one of the ascended master photos called Dolphin Rapture (DR). Two dolphins are blissfully spiraling together in sharing. Meditate on this image to be blissful, then allow that feeling to expand to your relationships. $7 + s & h

Just in Time for USA Thanksgiving
Nov. 23-Dec.13 in Sagittarius

Do you remember the December 2010 snowstorms? Mercury was retrograde then and global air travel was a disaster for the holidays. Not only does the Nov. 23 Mercury Retrograde start just in time for the USA Thanksgiving Day holiday, but there is also a Solar Eclipse on Nov. 24th to add to the fun (he said sarcastically!).

During Mercury retrograde, you review and revise life priorities. Sagittarius has to do with philosophy, belief systems, taking a risk on yourself to manifest your dreams, and travel. Consider what new adventures you would like to take on. Also consider what and whom you have outgrown and need to prepare to release. Begin the behind the scenes research for the next step in your life. Travelers: consider leaving early to get to your Thanksgiving holiday destination.

Nov. 24/25: A SOLAR ECLIPSE represents going to that quiet inner part of your being to see what your soul wants to do next. It takes you beyond ego-driven personality issues. At 3° Sagittarius, be willing to bring forth your teacher, mentor, minister or life adventurer. Something expansive is calling to you. You must go out and find it rather than thinking it will just come to you. Sagittarius is not a "sit home and God will give it to you if it is meant for you" type of energy. Make your quest an adventure in the months ahead.

For budding astrologers: Find the house area of your natal chart holding the retrograde degrees, 21°-3° Sagittarius. The activities represented by the house containing these degrees will give you a hint about where in your life you will be rethinking your philosophy during this cycle. (Download the Basic Astrology Primer in the left column at www.astromark.us/reports.htm for help on the meaning of the houses). Sag. In your 7th house: partnership issues are up for review. 11th house: it is time to seek new friends and philosophical groups. For the Solar Eclipse at 3° Sag., this house is where you will open to new methods and ideas to make new starts.

Soul Rays for MAHATMA GANDHI

This Great Soul brought independence to India through his Seventh Soul Ray. A person activates their soul ray when they choose to serve a higher good beyond their small self. The 7th is the ray of transmutation (changing energy that is less than loving into Love). It is the energy of magic. A 7th Ray person Initiates a New Order. Gandhi's soul purpose was to transform worldly conditions.

Gandhi's Personality Ray was the 5th Ray of Concrete Knowledge and Science. He had a systematic approach to his work which was especially shown earlier in life as he studied to become an Oxford graduated attorney.

"Gandhi continues what the Buddha began, In the Buddha, the spirit of Love sets itself the task of creating different spiritual conditions in the world; in Gandhi it undertakes to transform all worldly conditions."

~Albert Schweitzer

(This quote reflects Gandhi's 7th Ray Soul)

What is a Seven Soul Ray consultation?

This reading uses esoteric astrology and methods to calculate the frequencies (rays) that you incarnated on in this life. You will learn about your soul and personality rays. This information is based in the channellings of the Tibetan Master Djwahl Kuhl through Alice A. Bailey. Understanding the ray upon which you have incarnated helps you to work more fully with your energies of soul service. This reading is best for people who have reduced the need to ask "what's in it for me?" and increased the need to know, "what is my soul purpose and spiritual service in this life?" This is an esoteric astrology consultation that looks at how you can bring your soul service into earthly form.

Autumn Equinox September 23 2:05 AM PDT

A chart cast for the next three months shows a T-Square pattern which is a bit of a juggling act between competing needs and desires. Uranus wants freedom and something new. Pluto is all about transformation. It destroys anything that gets in your way of your connection with God Source, usually ego-based issues. The Sun shines its light on these issues to help you transform your life. The Yod pattern is the feeling of being caught between a rock and a hard place.

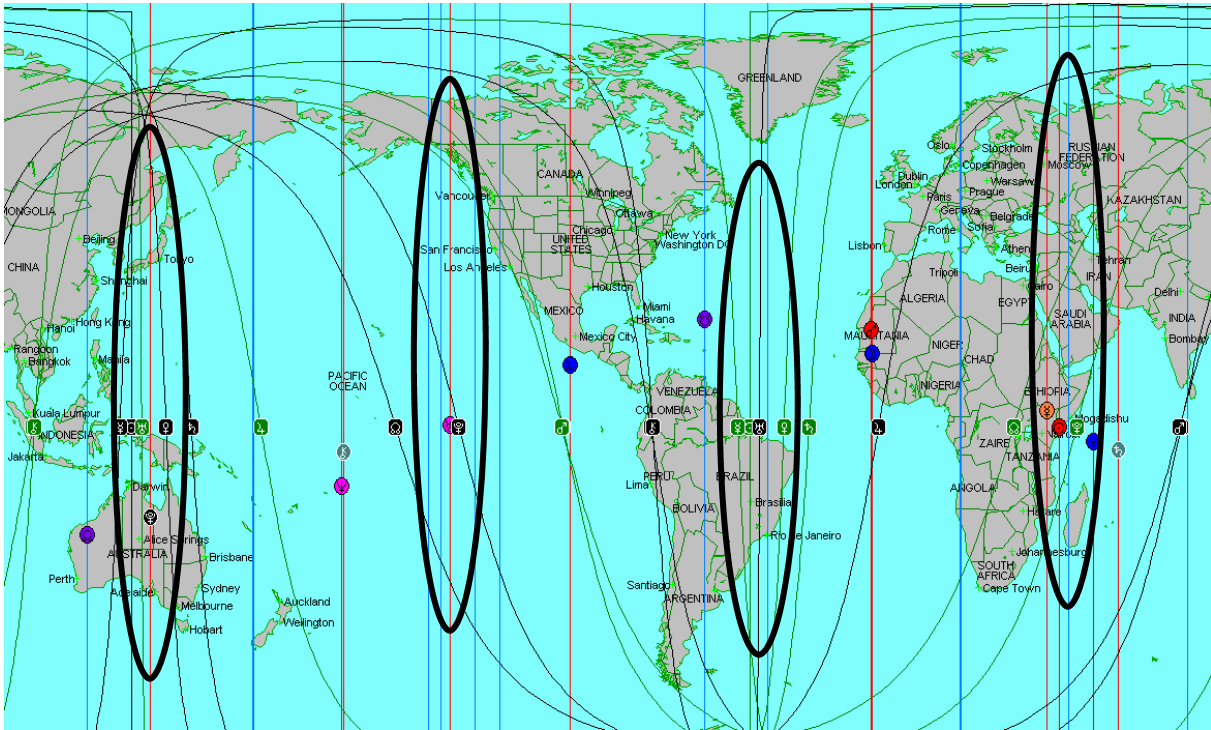

Libra is the sign of relationships, beauty and balance. On the spiritual level, Libra is associated with the 7th Ray, the Violet Flame and transmuting energy from the lower to the higher frequencies. In the body, Libra is tied to kidneys, adrenals, and sugar issues. Take care of these parts of your body for the next three months. Saturn says to go slow and have a disciplined plan.

Venus wants relationships and cooperation, so that feeling of wanting someone to curl up by the fire in the months ahead will be strong. Juno represents temporary relationships such as doing a short term project with someone. Restructure relationships.

Autumn Equinox 2011 Power Lines (AstroCartoGraphy®)

A map drawn for the three months that follow Autumn Equinox show dynamic action zones in Japan-Papua New Guinea, off the USA West and Canada coast, Brazil, and Middle East and horn of Africa.

In looking ahead to Winter Solstice and the Nov. 34/25 Solar Eclipse, the action zones are in different regions than this chart. This suggests that earth changes will not be as strong as when the same zones are activated by multiple charts. It is like getting the earthquake in Virginia as was the case in August, but not getting the big one like in Sumatra a few years ago.

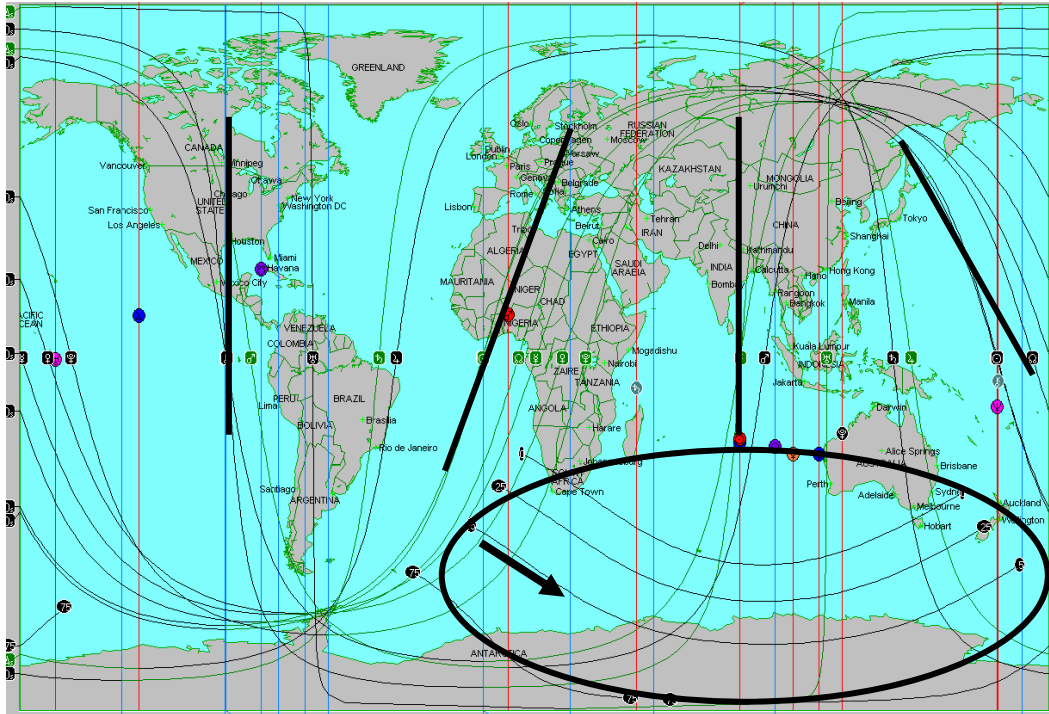

Hurricane Irene hit the USA East Coast when summer solstice energies were active on the east coast. There was still a lot of damage done, but Irene did get downgraded to a tropical storm instead of becoming larger.

It is also common to see other types of changes in an activated area. This can include political changes, fires, and volcanoes. This is not to say that it always has to be something bad— it just seems that there is better media attention to the bad things.

in their mission can alter the course of history.

Solar Eclipse Nov 24 11:21 PM PST 3° Sagittarius
It's time to take a risk on yourself and expand your opportunities.

Power lines maps (known as AstroCartoGraphy ® or EARTHLINES™) are used to find your personal power places on planet earth. They are also used in mundane astrology (looking at earth events, countries, corporations, etc.). There are a variety of techniques, but I find that casting charts and maps for summer & winter solstice, spring & fall equinox, and solar eclipses provides a good, overall indicator for hot zones.

For example, the map of the Summer Solstice shown in the Summer 2011 Astromark newsletter showed strong power lines going up the USA East Coast. Virginia had some fairly strong earthquakes and hurricane Irene made her presence known.

The circled area for the Nov. 24/25 Solar Eclipse shown above is mostly active in Antarctica. There are also “hot zones” creating action in Nepal and the Calcutta side of India, Fiji & the South Pacific, Southern New Zealand, the general region of the USA Mississippi River and Gulf Coast and eastern Europe and parts of Africa near the dark lines above.

On a personal note, this solar eclipse is in the early degrees of Sagittarius. A solar eclipse represents new beginnings. Sagittarius is expansive, risk-taking, adventurous, philosophical, generous, and optimistic. If you know where 3° Sagittarius lands in your chart, you know the house area where the eclipse lands. In the 7th house, you expand in the area of relationships. In the 10th house, it is time to expand in career matters. If it is your birthday, or you have natal planets in early Sagittarius, this eclipse more highly activates you.

Consider where you need to take a risk on yourself under the influence of this eclipse. Sagittarius wants to do things in a big way, living life with integrity and enthusiasm. Where do you need more enthusiasm in your life? I use about three months before & after as the effective range. The meanings of the houses and signs is on the free Basic Astrology Primer pdf in the left hand column of the monthly astrology forecast at
